

- Guided tours for both individuals and groups.

- Services for disabled people in the Archaeological Museum.

- Book-shop (souvenirs, handicrafts, archeological reproductions).

- Within the local bookshop, a small library has been set up with a wide range of texts: Archaeological, Essays, Novels, kitchen, children's books, Photography.

- Refreshment limited to selling ice cream and water.

- Service of audio guides (English, German).

- Two multimedia stations.

- Organization packages for groups, which include excursions to the archaeological park, guided tours, dinners in restaurants.

- Open all day from 9 to 19 throughout the year without closing day of the public.

- Museum showcase prepared for the blind (small path through tactile reproductions of archaeological finds).

- There are no architectural barriers in the two museums (Archaeological and Ethnographic).